

FORUM on HUMAN TRAFFICKING: WHAT YOU CAN DO!

February 11, 2012

10 A.M. to 1 P.M.

The First Unitarian Church
685 14th Street, Oakland
(14th and Castro Streets)

FREE ADMISSION

Hear these local and humanitarian groups:

- * District Attorney's office
- * New Day for Children. . . hope in the lives of girls caught in the despair of human trafficking.
- * MISSEY . . . Motivating, Inspiring, Supporting and Serving Sexually Exploited Youth
- * Not for Sale. . . Together, we can end slavery in our lifetime.

discuss this vital and urgent problem!

Refreshments will be served.

Merchandise will be available from the NOT FOR SALE STORE which generates enterprise and employment to prevent human trafficking and create new futures for survivors.

For more information contact Gen Katz: gen@metron.com (preferred) or 510-530-8870

Sponsored by the Oakland/Piedmont Chapter of the American Association of University Women (AAUW).